Story of His Alleged Crime

London, Sept. 3 .- It is reported here that Captain Albert Dreyfus, the French army officer who was publicly degraded, has esaped from the Isle du Grand Salut, and is now in the United States. His wife ided his escape. This news was brought here by Captain Hunter, of the British steamer Nonparell, which has just arrived at Newport from Cayenne, French Guiana.

elevated railronds. The annual license fee was fixed at $10 a stand. The conditions for securing permits are: An applicant must be a citizen, mits are: An applicant must be a citizon, and state exactly the location he desires. All applications must be filed with the Clerk of the Board, and go to the Aldermanic Committee on Law in the regular order of business. The Aldermen must first approve the location, the stand must not be more than seven feet high, nor wider than the "L" stairway; it must be erected at the applicant's expense and be painted the same color as the stairway; must be erected under the supervision of the Public Works Department, after approval by the Manihattan company. No signs nor advertising will be permitted on the stands, and the Mayor's permit shall be for only one year.

The undertone of the market was strong even for the stocks which showed slight fractional declines. Add ional engage ments of gold for import to the amount of $3,000,000 undoutsedly had an effect in off-setting the reactionary tendency due to heavy realizing of profits.

Foreign excharge was also easier, while money showed a similar tendency, although the tension in the money market has only been slightly relieved thus far, by the arrival of foreign money in the form of gold imports. Large amounts of gold are expected on the steamships arriving in the last half of the week, and £300,000 in gold was withdrawn from the Bank of Eugland to-day for shipment to New York.

Provisions were 5 to 71/2 cents lower for pork and 5 cents lower for lard and ribs. The total sales were 1,165,000 bushels wheat, 150,000 bushels corn and 9,000 barrels flour.

The export demand continues, and foreigners have bids in the market at a rate below present quotations. The private tables to agents here to-day from Liverpool had liberal acceptainces of offers of wheat and asked that the American shippers keep them advised and well supplied with re-
